

ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

WHO WE ARE:

Orthodox Christian Fellowship is the official collegiate campus ministry under SCOBA (The Standing conference of Canonical Orthodox Bishops in America).

Our chapter meets every Tuesday Night at the NIKA house (located on 2nd and John St in Champaign) at 6pm. We always start out with a dinner followed by activities/discussions, and we close each meeting with a prayer. Interested in finding out more? Feel free to contact ANY of our officer members! We are always happy to talk to you and answer any questions!

WHAT WE DO:

Retreats every season to develop our faith!

Attend fun dances!

OUR HOME AWAY FROM HOME:

The NIKA house is the home of OCF. It is a private certified residence for students at the University. The house is used for weekly meetings and social events. The OCF makes use of the center's facilities including a large meeting/media room, library, kitchen and dining area, and the Chapel of St. Philip the Apostle in the basement. Also houses some of the most comfortable couches you can find!

Practice our faith and serve the community!
